

International Agriculture

Project Information Page

In this project, members will investigate a variety of foods that are eaten around the world (and probably used in local cooking) but are not grown to a large scale locally. Members can research how the foods are grown and processed, taste the foods in their raw forms, work with the foods, compare international agricultural practices with local practices and/or try growing some of the foods.

Project Requirements

- Complete 5 food investigation modules.
- World Map - highlight or mark countries/areas discussed (can be done electronically)
- Participate in a group interview of a person with knowledge of international agriculture
- Project Page specific to Home Economics

4-H Year Completion

The following must be completed/documented by the Club's Achievement Day in order to complete the 4-H year

- Project Requirements as outlined above
- Communications (public speaking or demonstration)
- Community Service Activity
- Agriculture Awareness Activity
- Member Documentation (4) pages found in the member's binder OR on the 4-H PEI website
